

Lindita Xhaferi-Saliu leads work on sectors and business engagement in climate action as part of UN Climate Change wider Global Climate Action work. She supported high-level political negotiations for the UN Mission in Kosovo, managed public diplomacy activities and coordinated a series of global multi-stakeholder engagements and forums under the UNFCCC Sustainable Development Mechanisms.

She developed both the Fashion Industry Charter for Climate Action and the UN Sports for Climate Action and works closely with a variety of stakeholders to rally businesses on an ambitious pathway towards decarbonization. Lindita has an educational background in electrical engineering, international relations and global energy & climate policy.